

AQUA+ | The future of music: Unlimited and Powerful

AQUA+ is a wireless audio amplifier that provides maximum quality with a tangle free listening experience. It can be paired to your smart phone, laptop, TV or any other bluetooth device, allowing music to be enjoyed without sacrificing sound performance or convenience.

The parent company NEXUM brought AQUA, a micro audio amplifier designed for headphones, to life in 2015 with the support of over 3,000 backers on Kickstarter. The company has not been satisfied with the achievement and after 2 years of engineering and development, they are back with AQUA+ to redefine wireless audio.

Regular design for wireless audio processes audio signals through a single 16-Bit bluetooth chip, whereas AQUA+, designed with high quality wireless audio in mind, has three chips embedded in its elegant design to provide wireless, lossless and levelled up HiFi audio quality.
